Mihi from Te Kaiwhakaterere Chief Executive Officer

Kua ea ngā hekenga werawera o Tāne te wānanga, ā, ko te ihu o manawanui tēnei ka tū ki te kōmata o te huarahi o ihu one. Tēnei a ihu ka puta, ka ora, tihe mauri ora. Rauhi mai koutou ko tō rahi ki te whare whakamānawa o Te Wānanga o Aotearoa e whakatika nei i tōna whare whakarei tangata. Nau piki mai te hui, nau kake mai te kaupapa hirahira nui o te tau tēnei te whakatau nei.

Tēnā koe,

Each year I get to witness our taura take to the stage for their graduation and I am always filled with immense pride and reminded of why we do what we do – to see you, our valued taura, succeed.

Our graduation ceremonies are the high point of each year, not only for taura and kaiako, but the organisation as a whole. There is no doubt your whānau are brimming with aroha and pride for you as you reach this milestone.

Here at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa, graduation day is known as He Puāwaitanga, meaning 'to come to fruition'. You began your journey with a goal in mind, and today the achievement of this goal has become a reality. Your hard work over months or even years, despite challenges, has led to this momentous occasion.

Congratulations to you on your graduation. We're thrilled to celebrate with you, your whānau, your classmates and your kaiako. I hope you will take a moment to reflect on your accomplishments and acknowledge those who have supported you along the way.

'Kia angitu te taura, taura success,' is our mission at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa, and we know success looks different for every taura, so ensure you reflect on your own journey and take it all in. Success could mean you've graduated with a new qualification that will help you advance in your career, or perhaps, you've pursued a tohu that enables you to make positive contributions to your whānau, marae, hapū and iwi. Regardless of the educational path you've taken, it's been our privilege to be alongside you.

At Te Wānanga o Aotearoa, our vision is 'he takapau mātauranga, he whānau huarewa, whānau transformation through education.' We've witnessed the incredible impact education has on people's lives, and that's what drives us forward. I urge you to make good use of your education to benefit others in your whānau, your hapū, iwi and your community, but most importantly, yourself.

We firmly believe that education opens doors to new opportunities, and I encourage you to embrace them. I'm also a strong advocate for lifelong learning and I hope you'll consider furthering your studies with Te Wānanga o Aotearoa in the near or distant future.

Whether you choose to continue your journey with us or elsewhere, remember, you'll always be a valued part of our whānau here at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa.

Take pleasure in this moment; you've worked hard for it and truly deserve it.

Ngā manaakitanga

Nepia Winiata

Weaving connections for herself and her community

Claire Aldhamland never could have predicted where she has ended up since studying at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa. She's discovered a passion for raranga and created meaningful connections within her community.

The Rangiora art teacher began her learning journey at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa with He Papa Tikanga Level 3, a home-based programme.

She returned a few years later after researching who and where she could find the support and expertise needed to redesign her school's kapa haka uniform.

Claire realised that her art knowledge and skills were only one part to the design process but it was also important that she did it with te ao Māori in mind and learn traditional methods of Māori art and design.

"I looked into who the experts were, and that's when I found Sue Tipene, (raranga kaiako in Ōtautahi). I started in Kāwai Raupapa Level 4 with a lot of support and guidance from Sue, and then moved into Toi Paemātua Level 5 last year."

Claire made a prototype maro for the school kapa haka group and encouraged other teachers and parents to join in to help make enough for the group.

For those that do help create the maro, Claire is always quick to remind them that she is only the introduction, and if they want to learn more and deepen their knowledge, then Sue is the one to go and see.

Since delving into the world of te ao Māori, she has been able to learn and grow as a teacher, allowing her to look at things from a different perspective, and see where she can add value for her tauira Māori.

"I can't be everything, and I can't do everything, but I can do a little something to make things better for Māori kids."

Through this project, one student in particular was transformed by being supported to learn raranga.

Claire proudly says, "he was wanting to step into te ao Māori but lacked confidence. He really dove deep into his weaving and when I found out he'd started using his Māori name, I knew he'd found his place."

Claire encouraged him to submit a piece in the Ringa Toi secondary school student exhibition, which was displayed at Te Papa.

This has been a full circle moment for Claire, taking her learnings and passing them on, and providing an opportunity not previously available at their kura.

Word has got around about Claire's skills and knowledge, and she has been approached by local primary schools wanting support to make their kapa haka uniforms.

"How can I justify keeping that knowledge to myself? It's not mine to keep at home, I want to give back and put it out there for others to see and learn," says Claire.

Claire has committed to continuing to learn and bringing that knowledge back to her school community.

After being encouraged to apply, Claire won a study award grant from Teaching NZ, and this year she will travel to Rotorua to attend monthly noho for Maunga Kura Toi – Bachelor of Māori Art.

In addition, she will receive her Toi Paemātua tohu at a graduation ceremony, the highlight of study for many tauira.

"I just love the way Te Wānanga o Aotearoa do things. The depth of education I can get, I wouldn't go anywhere else."

Waka ama, culture, and community in Masterton

In November 2023 Masterton welcomed waka ama teams affiliated to Hoe Tonga for the Regional Sprint Championship.

This annual premier sprint event determined the regional champions who went on to compete at the 2024 National Waka Ama Championship held at Lake Karāpiro in January.

The event hosted competitors from a range of ages and backgrounds, including Te Wānanga o Aotearoa tauira, Terina Rimene, who studied Te Pōkaitahi Tikanga Level 4 in waka at the Masterton campus, alongside fellow tauira, Gareth Wheeler.

“I’ve been doing waka ama on and off for around 10 years. I thought that studying waka would be a good way for me to immerse myself in te ao Māori. It’s been like the next stage for me in my te reo learning,” says Gareth who moved to Aotearoa from Australia around 30 years ago.

Both Gareth and Terina were quick to learn that waka ama is more than just a physical sport; it reinforces the culture and tikanga of te ao Māori while also focussing on a participant's hauora.

“Right from the start of the programme there’s a focus on hauora and it’s a good reminder about regaining balance in your life. This has been a good way for me to step back, look at what I’m doing, and see what’s important to me,” says Gareth.

It was Terina’s daughter that inspired her to study waka, saying, “I chose to study waka to gain more knowledge to help my daughter.”

Terina chose to study waka at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa so she could learn from the kaiako who also coaches her daughter's team.

The programme gave her the skills required to support her daughter, but it’s also opened the door to new opportunities for Terina. On top of her fulltime mahi and study, Terina also volunteered as co-manager for a local women’s waka ama club and the intermediate girls' crew.

Studying waka also afforded Gareth and Terina the chance to connect with other tauira and be a part of a community that they can draw support from and grow alongside.

“There’s great whanaungatanga and each of us come from different walks of life. It’s been humbling and I feel privileged to be welcomed in and be a part of this cohort,” says Gareth.

Both Gareth and Terina will celebrate their achievements at one of this year’s Te Wānanga o Aotearoa graduation ceremonies, receiving Te Pōkaitahi Tikanga Level 4 Certificate in waka.

Māori lens influences the switch from nursing to social work

Palmerston North local, Nicole Tipene, was working towards her nursing degree before making the switch to study Ngā Poutoko Whakarara Oranga – Bachelor of Bicultural Social Work at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa.

Throughout her life, she has consistently shown genuine compassion and concern for others and wanted to work in an industry where she could serve the community.

But soon after beginning her nursing degree, she became more open to and curious about te ao Māori (the Māori worldview).

“I was challenged by a teacher on my whakaaro (opinion) on something to the point where it changed my perspective on the world. I got interested in Māori spaces, Māori issues, myself, and my whānau. I decided I wanted to do social work, and I knew I had to study here.”

2023 was Nicole’s final year of the 4 year degree and this year she will graduate with a Ngā Poutoko Whakarara Oranga – Bachelor of Bicultural Social Work, something she is proud of, considering she didn’t complete secondary school.

The mum of 3 hopes that by completing her degree, she can be an example to her tamariki and break generational cycles for her whānau.

“Te Wānanga o Aotearoa has helped open doors to further education, and I’ve been able to reconnect in an identity sense. The tools I’ve learnt help navigate barriers and challenges, and they reassert my confidence.”

Studying in a space where Māoritanga (Māori culture) is celebrated was a key factor in Nicole’s academic success. She praises her kaiako for creating a classroom environment where tauira can be vulnerable without judgement or pressure.

Nicole says the learning was “real and raw, and it was a safe space to explore yourself.”

Now she’s completed her degree, Nicole has high hopes for her future and the future of her whānau.

“We went deep into ourselves, and what comes out of that are tools we can use in the future. We can use them in our everyday lives, and that’s the reason that I can accomplish my goals.”

Na Tāne

Na Tāne i piki ake ki te toi huarewa
Ki te tiki i ngā kete o te mātauranga
Ko te kete Tūāuri
Ko te kete Tūātea
Ko te kete Aronui

Ka tahi ka hora ki te ao kikokiko
Ki te ao hurihuri
Ki o tātou tīpuna
Ka hoa te taura
Herenga tangata

Ko Te Kupenga o te Mātauranga
Ko te kete Tūāuri
Ko te kete Tūātea
Ko te kete Aronui

Ka tahi ka hora ki te ao kikokiko
Ki te ao hurihuri
Ki o tātou tīpuna
Ka hao te taura
haerenga tangata
Ko te Kupenga o te mātauranga x2
Te Wānanga o Aotearoa

Tai Aroha

Ko te aroha anō he wai
E pupū ake ana
He awa e māpuna mai ana
I roto i te whatumanawa
Ko tōna mātāpuna he hōhonu
A ina ia karere anō
Ko tōna mātāpuna he hōhonu
Ā inā ia karere anō
He tai timu, he tai pari
He tai ope, he tai roa
He tai nui
He tai nui
He tai nui
